

SPOTLIGHT

Two of our Bangkok Prep Executive Board members have been recently duly recognised in the 2009 Thailand Tatler Top 300 Expatriates 'Expat Society' magazine for their impressive achievements and dedication to the Kingdom of Thailand. Mrs Emily Ketudat's husband, Dr Sippanondha, was the first Chairman of the Bangkok Prep Board of Directors.

EMILIE KETUDAT

Following an academic career which began in 1962 as an instructor at Chulalongkorn University, the Institute for the Promotion of Teaching Science and Technology and the Asian Institute of Technology, she served as the coordinator for the Thailand Campaign to Ban Landmines from 1995 until early 2009 while working as a full-time volunteer with the Jesuit Refugee Service Asia Pacific. The widow of Prof Sippanond is the recipient of many royal decorations including the Knight Grand Cross (First Class) of the Most Noble Order of the Crown of Thailand.

KEITH B WECKER

Keith Wecker has worked in Thailand since 1993 as headmaster of three different international schools offering the UK, US and IB programmes. Following a stint at NIST, he was appointed headmaster of APIS, and is currently headmaster of Bangkok International Preparatory and Secondary School, which was the recipient of the 2009 Prime Minister's Export Award in international education. He is also currently the secretary general of the International Schools Association of Thailand.
